PREFACE TO THE FIRST CATALOGUE, 1866.

The Holton Library, of which the first printed Catalogue comprised the following preface, was instituted in 1864. James Holton, the founder, of whom a biographical sketch may be found in the library, was born at Brighton (then the south part of Cambridge), on Washington street, opposite the foot of Rockland street, Thursday, April 10, 1800, oldest child of Major Benjamin and Mary (Shed) Holton, and died, unmarried, the last of his family, at the estate inherited from his father, on Faneuil street, between Market and Parsons streets, Wednesday, April 29, 1863, aged sixty-three years and nineteen days.

The Brighton Social Library, one of the earliest of the kind in the State, was organized with a Constitution, March 1, 1824. A Catalogue, with the names of the proprietors appended, was soon printed. A second Catalogue, with the Constitution appended, printed by Dutton & Wentworth, Boston, was issued January 1, 1836.

The Brighton Library Association for the circulation of books, for maintaining courses of public lectures and exercises in declamation, composition and debate, was incorporated in accordance with the Statutes of the Commonwealth, January 15, 1858. Funds for the foundation of the Library were secured from the proceeds of a social levee and fair given by the ladies of Brighton, New Year's Eve, Dec. 31, 1856. The first catalogue of the Association, a small duodecimo, with an abstract of the Constitution and By-Laws appended, was issued in 1857, from the publishing house of Bazin, Morse & Co., Boston.

A second catalogue, in octavo form, containing likewise an abstract of the Constitution and By-Laws, printed by Charles H. Crosby, Boston, was issued April 10, 1859.

The books of both the above named libraries made part of the foundation of the Holton Library.

For the gratification of the curious hereafter, copies of those earlier catalogues, together with several of the catalogues of Sabbath School Libraries of different churches in the town, have been bound and deposited in the library.

The government of the Library is vested in a Board of Trustees, of twelve, chosen by the town, divided at first into three classes, of four members each, to hold office respectively for three years, two years, and one year. Its officers are a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Librarian.

Rules and regulations for the Trustees and for the use of the Library, printed in pamphlet form, by John Wilson & Son, Boston, were issued on the opening of the Library, September 1, 1864, and distributed among the families of the town. Copies of the same remaining on hand, have now been bound up with a portion of the catalogues.

The arrangement of the catalogue, it is believed, needs no explanation, — each volume being designated by its number. It is designed as a plain guide in the selection of books, and as an index to the contents of the Library.

Books marked with an asterisk (*) are distinguished as books of reference, and are to be consulted on the tables of the Hall, by permission of the Librarian, but not taken out.

For further information respecting the Library, the inquirer is referred to the reports of the Trustees, printed annually.

Holton Library, June 6, 1866.

PREFACE TO SECOND CATALOGUE, 1871.

The second Catalogue of the Holton Library is here presented. Its preparation has required more time than was anticipated, since the collection of books has not only been greatly enlarged, but the arrangement and classification entirely changed. The books were formerly counted by continuous numbers, from one to thousands. This system, of course, admitted of no classification by subjects; since any book added to-day must stand by the side of the book last added, although the subjects of the two were wholly unlike. Accordingly, this system is now generally abandoned in the best-arranged libraries. The books are here numbered by alcoves and shelves. Each alcove has eight shelves, and is devoted to a single subject, as Biography, History, Natural Philosophy, Poetry, etc. The books on each shelf, running around the entire alcove, are numbered from one, upwards. Of course a book may at any time be added to a shelf by giving it the number next above that last given on the same shelf.

Explanation of the alcove and shelf numbers. — The figure or figures on the right of the period denote the number of the book on the shelf, or books if more than one volume. The figure first on the left of the period denotes the shelf. The figure second, or second and third on the left of the period denote the alcove. The size of the volume, with the place and year of publication are also given.

Example. Page 1. Abbott, Abiel, D. D. History of Andover. 12°. Andover, 1829. 83.8. The figure on the right of the period (8) denotes the number of the book on the shelf. The figure first on the left of the period (3) denotes the shelf. The figure second on the left of the period (8) denotes the alcove. And accordingly the book, a duodecimo, or 12° in size, published at Andover in 1829, is the eighth book, on the third shelf, of the eighth alcove.

These, embraced in ten volumes, octavo, or 8° in size, were published in Boston, in 1856, edited by his grandson, Charles Francis Adams. The figures on the right of the period (1–10), denote the numbers of the volumes on the shelf. The figure first on the left of the period (7) denotes the shelf. The figures second and third on the left of the period (10) denote the alcove. And accordingly we read, books one to ten, seventh shelf, tenth alcove.

The principal publishing cities, as Boston, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, London, etc., are distinguished by their familiar abbreviations. Volumes without date, or with title-page lost, are distinguished by n. d., and n. t. p.

A large collection of pamphlets, some of rare value and interest, arranged in pamphlet-cases, have been made accessible for consultation and reading at the hall, and are catalogued. They will be found distinguished on the Catalogue by the letter C. (case); its number in Roman numerals, with the number of the pamphlet in the case.

Example. Page 65. Cynance, Malignant; Diphtheria. Geo. Aspinwall, M. D. 8°. Dedham, 1788. * C. X. 21. This will be found as twenty-first pamphlet in tenth case.

First, under the name of an author, are placed in alphabetical order, works written by him; next, with the prefix, Tr., Ed., Comp. works which he translated, edited, compiled; and lastly, works written on him or concerning him by others, as a life, memoir, sketch, or criticism. This arrangement, unexplained, may give the appearance of a want of alphabetical order. See Adams, John Quincy, Pres.; Dickens, Charles; Greeley, Horace; Hale, Edward E.; Howitt, Mary; Jefferson, Pres.; Lamb, Charles; Quincy, Josiah; Shakspeare; Washington; Webster, etc.

In several instances the contents of a volume are given under the title, as in matters of general, or local interest. The five large volumes of Edward Everett's inimitable eloquence have been thus completely catalogued, as on pages 86–88. It is not known that his works have ever before been thus presented to the reader in any similar Catalogue.

Where an author has a pseudonym, or assumed name, it follows in Italics, his real name at the head of his works. It is likewise entered once in Italics, as a cross reference, pointing to his real name. Example. Dickens, Charles, Boz; and under B., Boz, see Dickens, Charles.

(J. H.). Initial letters enclosed in brackets after an author, except the familiar abbreviations of D. D. and M. D., denote parts of the author's Christian name, which are not commonly used, or written. Example. Dickens, Charles (J. H.); Stowe, Harriet (E.) Beecher. A complete dictionary of all pseudonyms in the Catalogue, will be found appended.

Any work referred to the Bulletin, and not found on Bulletin No. 1, herewith appended, may be understood as in preparation for a subsequent bulletin.

The Catalogue has been prepared with reference to the arrangement of the contemplated new library edifice, in which the alcoves, here reaching eighteen in number, will be considerably wider and deeper, and may be indefinitely extended beyond the ground floor in galleries. It has likewise been prepared with reference to the approaching annexation of Brighton with Boston, when the library, of course, becomes a branch of the Boston City Library. Several hundred volumes and documents are catalogued under the head of Boston; many documents, likewise, pertaining to our own town and to the towns and cities adjacent and more remote. Including the pamphlets partially bound, catalogued, and ready for service, the whole number of volumes embraced in the library is a little over nine thousand. Some costly and valuable volumes, donations, are for reference only at the hall. With the regular issue of Bulletins of books added, it is believed that another general catalogue will not be required for many years.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

FOR THE

BOARD OF TRUSTEES,

AND FOR THE USE OF

THE HOLTON LIBRARY, BRIGHTON.

CHAPTER I.

FOR THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

ARTICLE 1. The Board of Trustees, elected by the town, shall, each year, at the first meeting after the annual town-meeting, organize, by choosing from their number a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and also a Librarian from their own number, or at large, who shall severally perform the duties hereinafter enumerated.

ARTICLE 2. The Board of Trustees shall meet on the Monday evening succeeding the annual town meeting, and shall hold regular meetings on the second Monday of every month, at the Library-hall. Meetings from April to September, inclusive, shall be held at half past seven o'clock, P. M.; and, from October to March inclusive, at seven o'clock, P. M. Special meetings shall be called by the Secretary, upon the request, in writing, of three trustees, by a notice specifying the subject to be acted on. At all meetings, five members of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE 3. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board, and shall have the power, usually vested in a presiding officer; and in his absence, a President pro tem. shall be chosen.

ARTICLE 4. The Secretary shall keep a record of all meetings of the Board, and shall perform the duties incident to his office.

ARTICLE 5. The Treasurer shall hold and invest, subject to the direction of the Trustees, all funds belonging to the Library, and, with the same, shall pay all bills which shall be approved by the President and Secretary. He shall keep proper books of account, showing all receipts and disbursements; which books shall always be open to the inspection of the Board, or of any member thereof. These books, together with the Treasurer's vouchers for money paid, and evidences of investment, shall annually, in the month of February, be examined and audited by the Trustees, or by a committee of the same. The Treasurer shall give bonds, to the satisfaction of the Board, for the faithful performance of his duties.

ARTICLE 6. The Librarian shall keep the Library-hall and its appurtenances in good order, and properly ventilated, warmed, and lighted when in use. He shall record, in a book kept for that purpose, the name of every donor to the Library, the property given, the date of the donation, the estimated value thereof, and the conditions, if any, on which given; and shall likewise return, in certificate form, to each donor, an acknowledgment of thanks on behalf of the Trustees. He shall also record the title of each book purchased, the date thereof, and cost. He shall cover, and attach to each book a printed label designating the name of the Library, the number of the book, and, if given, the name of the donor. He shall enter, in a book kept for the purpose, the name of each person entitled to use the Library, the number of each book taken, and the date when delivered; and shall duly check such number when the book is returned. He shall keep a correct account of all penalties incurred and paid, when and by whom rendered, and shall return the amount to the Treasurer, once a quarter. He shall carefully examine the account of each person on the first week of May, August, and November, annually, to ascertain all neglects in the due return of books, and shall forthwith notify all delinquents of such neglect by written communications. Should such books not be returned before the first day of the following month, he shall cause the same to be looked up and returned at the expense of the delinquent. He shall withhold the use of the Library from those from whom fines are due, and shall appraise the amount of damages done to books and other property of the Library, subject to appeal to the Board.

Article 7. These Rules and Regulations may be altered by the Trustees at any regular meeting (due notice of the proposed alteration having been given a week previously), or at any special meeting called for the purpose.

CHAPTER II.

FOR THE USE OF THE LIBRARY.

Article 1. The Library shall be open every Wednesday and Saturday from three to six o'clock, and from seven to nine o'clock, P. M. No books, however, shall be delivered for two weeks immediately preceding the fifteenth day of August.

Article 2. All books shall be returned to the Library on or before the fifteenth day of August, under penalty of a fine of twenty-five cents.

Article 3. Any resident in town, over the age of fourteen, may have the use of the Library, upon signing a promise to obey its rules and regulations, and may take therefrom one volume at a time; provided that this article shall not be understood as forbidding the use of the Library to commissioned officers of the United States stationed at the Watertown arsenal.

Article 4. Every person entitled to the use of the Library shall receive from the Librarian a printed card, on which the book asked for shall be designated by its catalogue-number, in blanks left for the purpose; and this card will be presented to the Librarian, as the only mode of obtaining any book wanted. If the book is not to be found, the card will be returned for the applicant to insert another number.

Article 5. No book shall be kept out more than fourteen days; and new books, when ordered by the Trustees, shall be returned in a shorter period. Such new books shall not be retaken by the same person until after one week from the date of their return. The fine for retaining any volume beyond the time above specified shall be five cents for every half-week of such retention.

ARTICLE 6. Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these regulations shall be sent for by the Librarian; and the expense incurred in obtaining it shall be paid by the delinquent.

ARTICLE 7. All injuries to books, beyond reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good, to the satisfaction of the Board, by the persons liable; and any book not returned within one week after demand for it made by the Librarian shall be regarded as lost.

ARTICLE 8. No person having a book from the Library shall lend it to any one not a member of the same household.

ARTICLE 9. No person owing a fine or forfeiture shall receive books from the Library until the same is paid.

ARTICLE 10. All persons visiting the library room will be required to demean themselves quietly; and no conversation will be allowed in the room.

ARTICLE 11. Persons entitled to the privileges of the Library may receive books for consultation in the Reading-room while the Library is open; and the Librarian shall enter all books thus withdrawn, and erase the entry when they are returned. Any person neglecting to return a book, thus temporarily consulted, to the Librarian, shall pay the same fine as for a week's detention beyond the time prescribed by the Regulations.

ARTICLE 12. Books of reference, and those deemed by the Trustees unsuitable for general circulation, shall not be loaned, except by an order signed by at least two members of the Board.

ARTICLE 13. Catalogues of books belonging to the Library, with the established rules and Regulations annexed, shall be provided by the Trustees; and, on application, a copy shall be given to the head of each family.

Article 14. These Rules and Regulations may be altered by the Trustees at any regular meeting (due notice of the proposed alteration having been given one week previously), or at any special meeting called for the purpose.

The attention of parents and guardians of the young is particularly called to the following recent act of the legislature of the Commonwealth: "Whoever wilfully and wantonly writes upon, injures, defaces, tears, or destroys, any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue belonging to any law, town, city, or other public library, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars for every such offence."

BENEFACTORS

HOLTON LIBRARY.

Besides volumes and pamphlets as below enumerated, other donations have from time to time been made. It has not been found convenient in all cases to record the value of each donation, as suggested in the Rules and Regulations. Gifts from a few of our citizens may be named. At the opening of the library, Mr. Theodore Matchett caused a life-size portrait of Mr. James Holton, the founder, to be executed in the highest style of the art, by a German artist of Boston, Mr. F. L. Lay, at a cost of one hundred and twenty-five dollars. The elegant clock which was duly noticed in the Sixth Annual Report of the trustees, was presented at a cost of three hundred dollars by Mrs. William Frederic Matchett. Mr. John Ruggles presented Bachelder's large and celebrated Isometrical engraving, in colors, in size nearly four feet by three, of the Battle of Gettysburg. The well-executed portrait of President Zachary Taylor was received from Mr. J. P. Cushing Winship. More recently, Mr. George H. Howe has given a very admirable portrait of President Grant. A large and handsome photographic picture of the Peace Celebration in this town, in 1865, was likewise presented by Mr. J. P. Cushing Winship. All these are hung in the inner hall. Various Maps and Charts, as enumerated in the Catalogue, have likewise been contributed. Mr. Winship, a generous donor from the beginning, has also presented several curiosities and Specimens in Natural History as the nucleus for a Museum, for which, it is expected, a suitable room will be prepared in the contemplated new edifice.

James Holton's Original Bequest, $6,000.

Biography embraces, perhaps, the largest department of the Library. To have enumerated all under this head, would have been to transcribe no inconsiderable portion of the whole collection. Biography must be found under the names of Individuals, especially the leading Authors, under Autobiographies, Dictionaries, Cyclopædias; under Adventures, Lives and Memoirs of Men and Women; under certain qualifying terms; as, "distinguished," "eminent," "famous," "great," "illustrious;" under Essays; as, of Thomas Carlyle, Thomas de Quincey, Alphonse de Lamartine, Macaulay, &c. We find graceful Biography in certain biographical works of Harriet Martineau; Mrs. H. B. Stowe; in "Eminent Americans, Male and Female," some hundreds, by Lossing, &c., and in other similar works by Parton and Goodrich. Admirable Biography is noted, as in lives of John Adams; Franklin; Jefferson; Washington, by Rev. Theodore Parker, in his "Historic Americans"; in Sketches of Statesmen and Lawyers, as by S. L. Knapp; or, of Divines, as by William Ware, William B. Sprague, Joseph Allen; or of Physicians, as by James Thacher; or, of Merchants, as by Freeman Hunt, by Francis, by Scoville and others; or, of the Presidents, as by Abbott, and others. The field of Biography, as we try to bound it, seems vast.

THE TOWN OF BRIGHTON

WITH

THE CITY OF BOSTON.

1874.

By the act of the Massachusetts Legislature, approved May 21, 1873, for the annexation of the above-named town and city, which act was accepted by a majority of the legal voters of both places, on Tuesday, October 7, 1873, Brighton becomes, on the 5th day of January, 1874, the nineteenth ward of Boston.

The Holton Public Library becomes, on the same date, a Branch Library of the Boston Public Library, and will publish no more catalogues, bulletins, or reports; all which will issue from the central library only.

The history of the origin and progress of our library, and of the two other libraries, for circulation in town, which, from the year 1825, preceded it, may be gathered from the nine annual reports, and from the other published documents of the trustees.

It is expected that the elegant library edifice, now in process of erection, in brick and freestone, on Rockland Street, at an estimated cost of fifty thousand dollars and upwards, and for which ground was first broken on the 31st of July, 1873, will be completed in the spring.

The Regents of the Smithsonian Institution, at Washington, have presented a set of their valuable publications to this library, too late for insertion in this bulletin. They will appear in the regular bulletin, issued in April next, from the Central Library.

A complete list of donors to the Holton Public Library since March, 1873, will be found appended to this bulletin.
